Topeka friends of Mrs. Marian Mac-Vicar Morris will be surprised and in-terested to hear of her marriage to Mr. William von Stahr of Chicago which took place last July, but has not been previously announced in Topeka. Mr. and Mrs. von Stahr went to Europe on their wedding trip and visited the former's people in Germany but have now returned to this country and are living in Chicago. Mrs. von Stahr is a daughter of the late Dr. Peter Mac-Vicar, first president of Washburn col-lege, and lived in Topeka until the last lege, and lived in Topeka until the last three or four years which she has spent in Chicago and New York.

Sunday teas, inaugurated a fortnight ago by Miss Floyd Robenson who asked a few guests informally for Sunday afternoon, promise to be the most poputernoon, promise to be the most popular feature of the season for the younger set. Miss Permelia Curtis entertained about 20 friends in this pleasantly informal fashion yesterday afternoon and Mrs. W. S. McClintock and Miss Calla Cuttell will give a Sunday teat the home of the former soon after Miss Cuttell, who is now in Leavenworth, returns. Sunday is the only afternoon when the men (except the members of the Idle Rich class, represented locally by only two men, one of whom threatens to take a position the first of the month) are available so there is an excuse for asking one's friends for tea on Sunday, if the unco' gude demand it.
